THE public are hereby informed that forger ies have recently been discovered of the old notes of the HONGKONG AND SKANGHAR BANKING Company Limited, and all holders of such notes are invited to present them forthwith at the Bank office for encushment. There is no reason to believe that any of the notes issued by the HONGKONG AND SHANGHAI Banking Corporation have been tampered with, as such precuations were taken in their manufacture as to render any attempt at a forgery most easy of detection.

Any information which may lead to the discovery and conviction of the parties concerned in the forgery will be liberally rewarded, and any communication likely to lead to such a resalt will be gladly received by the undersigned, or Mr. EDMUND SHARP, the Solicitor for the Corporation.

'At the end of 1869 the funded debt of the native population, France was 570 millions sterling; to this has loan of 30 millions sterling voted by the Legislative body last July to defray the current expenses of the wart. Thus, on the collapse at Sedan, we have 600 millions sterling as a starting point. What liabilities have been since incurred is a subject not ensily ascertained. Last October, the Provisional Government of National Defence authorised and obtained a loan of ton millions sterling, which, however, must be a very small proportion of the liabilities which they have incurred. We set aside, the consideration of the money which will be urgently required for repairing and reconstructing public works on the attainment of peace. At least 300 millions will have to be borrowed to raise the amount of 200 millions for the indemnity, so that it is really impossible to make any reasonable computation which will not give 1,000 millions sterling as the

The Hongkong Community may certainly be congratulated upon the rapidity with which the commencement of the Beamen's Church has become a fait accompli. The circumstance is, one which reflects credit upon all concerned, and which cannot be spoken of without feelings both of admiration and respect. It is difficult to say whether more credit is due to the Community generally for the liberality which they have displayed, or to the Bishop of Victoria for the earnestness with which he set the movement on foot. The amount was subscribed with a rapidity which is certainly most noteworthy, and as wanted to redeem it; upon being questioned be was gracefully observed by Mr. JAMES WHITTALL, the representative business man of the place, the Bishop of Victoria might be considered to have taught business men leason by the speed with which he succeeded in carrying out a most worthy object. PUNTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION. An Anglo-Chierse Dictionary, by the Rev. W. LOBSCHEID, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkoug.

HOH scope and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese baye of late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in ecience generally, which the rapid advance of foreign relations bas imposed upon them, are here given in extenso. Each and every word is fully illustrated and explained, forming exernines for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Ponti-pronunciations are given, the secents being carefully marked on the best principle hitherto attained. The typegraphy displays the sucress, of an attempt to make the Ohinese and English type correspond n the size of body, thereby effecting a wast concept of space, achieving a clearness not previously attained, and dispensing with those wast margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications. The scope of the work is so great, and its utilitarian purposes so complete, that a reforence to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chiplains subjects fully, with which very few in-deed of them are perfectly acquainted. To parties resident in England and interested in Chira it carnet but be mealuable occasionally. It comprises upwards of two thousand large
